

Longmont Ledger
24 Nov 1899

JENKINS—At Highlandlake, Wednesday, Nov. 22, 1899, of paralysis, Mrs. Mehitabel H. Jenkins, aged 86 years.

Mrs. Jenkins was the mother of Mrs. M. L. Mead, with whom she has been living the past twenty-one years, her husband dying at that time. She was of the genuine old New England stock, strong force of character and a good mother. She has been blind and confined to her bed for about two years. She leaves a son and daughter.

Jenkins - At Highlandlake, Wednesday, Nov 22, 1899, of paralysis, Mrs. Mehitabel H Jenkins, aged 86 years.

Mrs. Jenkins was the mother of Mrs. M. L. Mead, with whom she has been living the past twenty-one years, her husband dying at that time. She was of the genuine old New England stock, strong force of character and a good mother. She has been blind and confined to her bed for about two years. She leaves a son and daughter.